2022 Summary Notes/Recognition:

- Cathy: Shifted from LCI to Small Area Plan strategy
- Mark H: took over control of the Treasury from Jay Johnson.
- Cathy, and Don for administrative prowess to navigate the glacial event permitting and insurance compliance process!
- Marlene and Sarah: our talented content providers for written communications. Including the website, which was significant upgraded this year!
- Anne: helped elevate our visibility with the office of CEO Thurmond and COO Zach Williams and the public works department to successfully replace the crosswalks in time for OSEV!
- Mark G, w/ support from Cynthia and Mr. Payne who are prosecuting a relentless campaign to advance the Overlay Amendment process. We completed the public engagement stage & now working w/ Rachel Bragg and Brandon White at DeKalb County to finalize.
- Don W: coordinated with the Olmsted 200 Committee leading up to the events in April when we produced our 1st Spring Concert featuring John Willingham and Shawn Mullins, with the help of Scott Riley. Hillary Kilfeather's graphic design and DHCA article fused our efforts seamlessly w/ the community's goals. - Don: outcome of the special project?
- Don, Mark H, Jean, Cathy, Clarke, Mary, Kit (fundraising), and Cynthia (arch tour) and many others: planned and produced the 10th Annual OSEV!
  - Including rededication of the Plaza, Fountain and Sculpture. Both the Calhoun family and Mary Kelly were present and both made a donation towards its ongoing maintenance.
  - Don, Mark & Stella: took the lead on the local live music and bar ops for the Beer & Wine Garden during OS. We've now tried out 3 venues as well as the plaza for live performances. And Mark H knows exactly how far it is from each to Glenn Memorial Church!
- Mark H: ongoing expert oversight and management of the fountain maintenance, and led two volunteer workdays to clean up the Village
- Mark H: logistics genius for planning and implementing large events w/ a multitude of moving parts; he runs a tight meeting! We are going to alleviate he and Don from stevedore responsibilities to load-in and load-out the stage henceforth!

We hope you brought your annual contribution check for Mark (there are a number of Members for whom we're waiting for the 2022 contribution). Also, we'd like to recognize Peggy, Stella, Sally, Don, and Mark for donations toward Beer & Wine Garden!
